Description:

Finance available You could have this Chair for £6.37 per week* Frisco Wall Hugger Rise and Recline Chair The Restwell Frisco wall hugger rise and recline chair was developed for individuals who would like a Rise & Recline Armchair but do not have the space for a traditional style riser chair. When the Frisco reclines it only requires approximately 5cm / 2" behind the armchair, hence is ideal where space is a premium. This is all made possible through the innovative design where the seat moves forward into the frame as the chair reclines. As with other Restwell chairs, the Frisco offers a distinct lift, rest and recline action and is ideal for people suffering from conditions that affect mobility. The Frisco is craftsman upholstered in luxurious Jacquard fabric, and is available in brown, green or red.
